For Your Information:

The following information is provided to help you understand and to answer questions you may have about therapy fees, payment and confidentiality. Please feel free to discuss any of these areas in greater depth with me.

Benefits and Risks:

Psychotherapy is a means of helping you understand yourself on a deeper level and to learn to deal more effectively with issues/problems. It can be an exciting as well as a painful process. There may be some things that happen to you that are unpleasant due to the therapeutic process. You may feel worse before you begin to feel better. Initial sessions will focus on providing coping skills to help you deal more effectively with the painful times. After psychotherapy, people often make changes in their lives. For example, they may modify some of their emotional responses, ways of thinking, and behaviors. They may make changes in their marriage or other significant relationships such as with parents, children, or relatives and friends. They may also make changes in their jobs. We will discuss the changes you anticipate as we go along. Therapy is a collaborative effort between the two of us. I cannot guarantee or promise any specific outcomes.

Costs:

Sessions are generally 45 to 50 minutes in length; however, longer sessions may be arranged. The sessions typically start on the hour and the cost for each session is $125.00 unless there have been prior arrangements made in writing by me. There is no provision for sliding scale fees due to the recent change in laws precipitated by insurance companies. If you wish to extend your session, you must notify me prior to that session and we will attempt to work that out with your insurance company. Additional session time is charged at the rate of $47.50 per half hour. Please read the sheet on Billing Procedures for further information regarding insurance and cancellation policy.

Length of Treatment:

This depends in part on your specific needs and abilities, the goals we set together, and the involvement of your insurance company. Many Managed Care Organizations now limit psychotherapy to a maximum of 20 sessions per year, some companies less. It is important that you know what your insurance company allows and that this be managed wisely. You have the right to terminate therapy at any time you choose. I would hope that you would allow me to participate in the termination decision rather than just disappearing as this deprives us both of the opportunity for feedback and closure. In addition, the insurance companies often require a discharge summary.

Confidentiality:

I treat confidentiality very seriously. No information about you, including the fact that you are here, can be released without your written consent. The only way your records or any information in your records will be released to a third party is if you assign them privilege to these materials. Please understand: there are some limits to this confidentiality. If your therapy is covered by insurance, they may request information about your condition and treatment. If your mental health benefits are handled by a managed care company, they will usually require periodic detailed information in order to authorize sessions. There is no confidentiality between myself and the insurance/ managed care company. Once the information leaves my office I am no longer responsible for the confidentiality of your records. Please – speak with me before you sign for someone else to obtain your records. If a collections agency must be used, they will receive only your name, address, and amount owed.

Emergency Procedure:

If you have an emergency during the day, please telephone the office, inform them that this is an emergency and I will call you as soon as I am free between client sessions. This contact will necessarily be brief and will be used to determine a course of action only. If you are in need of emergency assistance after hours, please call the main office number and you will be given instructions. If the emergency is critical and you are unable to reach me in a timely manner, then it is your responsibility to telephone 911 or have someone drive you to the emergency room designated by your insurance company. When I am out of town or otherwise unavailable, I will be using the services of a colleague to handle emergency situations. Telephone calls that are not an emergency are usually returned after hours or at the latest by the following morning. Please leave a day and evening number where you can be reached. Please inform me if you are already being followed by a psychiatrist. A psychiatrist or other M. D. is the only professional who can prescribe medications or admit you to the hospital.

Alternative Treatment:

There are occasions in which there is not a good “therapist-patient” fit. If this becomes the case, I will gladly offer you a list of referrals to other professionals in the area. I am in support of your treatment and want this experience to be a positive one for you, whether you are working with me or someone else.

Patient Responsibility:

The following are your responsibilities as a patient: Your time belongs to you and the next hour is dedicated to the next patient. If you are late for your appointment, then you will miss out on your full time. If I am late for your session, I will make the time up at the end of the hour in order to ensure you have your full session time. Please honor the 24 hour cancellation notice policy so that the time may be utilized by someone else and you are not billed for an unused hour. You are expected to pay your bill as I have financial obligations to my office, my staff, my family and myself. Talk with me if you are having difficulty with this. Please inform me if you decide to discontinue counseling as many insurance companies require a discharge summary.

Information: The client must provide true, accurate, and complete information.

Instructions: The client must follow instructions for treatment. The client should understand the consequences of not doing so, and if unable to comply, must inform the staff or me so that efforts can be made to help.

Refusal of Treatment: The client and family are responsible for the outcomes if they do not follow the medical plan of treatment and discontinue treatment against advice.

Respect and Consideration: Clients and family must show consideration for other clients and staff by helping to control noise and behaviors in the waiting room. Cell phones are to be turned off in the waiting room. You may step outside to use your cell phone. Clients and family must respect the property and privacy of others and the organization.

Obligations: The client must keep appointments and fulfill financial obligations for their diagnostic and therapeutic services.

Behavior: The client must abide by the rules and regulations of my office.

3633 Wheeler Rd. Suite 100

AMY D. SIMONS, M.ED., LPC

Legal Issues:

Georgia and South Carolina law requires that child abuse be reported to the Department of Family and Children's Services (GA) or Department of Social Services (SC). I am also required by law to take responsible action to preserve life. Confidentiality will necessarily be violated to the extent necessary to ensure you are kept safe until you are able to keep yourself safe.

Not all services are a covered benefit in all insurance plans. Patients are expected to pay for any part of charges not covered by insurance. Unless prohibited by contract, patients will be billed for any unforeseen account balances after insurance has paid. A charge of $25.00 will be assessed on all returned personal checks. Should your account be turned over to a collection agency, you will be responsible for collection fees, attorney fees, and court costs. If temporary financial problems affecting timely payment of your account should arise, we encourage you to contact us promptly for assistance in management of your account.

Audio / Visual Recording:

There is to be no use of any type of visual or auditory recording devices at any time without the knowledge and consent of all parties present.

Cancellation/No Show Policy:

You are expected to remember your appointments whether or not our office staff is able to contact you with a reminder call. Appointments must be cancelled at least 24 hours prior to the scheduled time or you will be charged. If an emergency prohibits you from the 24 hours notice, this should be the exception rather than the rule. You may be required to provide written documentation of the emergency to prevent from being billed.

Client Information and Informed Consent for Telemental Health Treatment

Telemental health services involve the use of electronic communications (telephone, video conference, etc.) to enable therapists to provide services to individuals remotely. Telemental health is a relatively recent approach to delivering care and there are some limitations compared with seeing a therapist in person. These limitations can be addressed and are usually minor depending on the needs of the client and the care with which the technology (cell phone, tablet, computer, etc.) is utilized.

Timely notification:

My intention is that telemental health be offered at my practice during the extent of the Covid-19 public health crisis. I cannot guarantee that services via telehealth will continue after this health emergency has abated. Please note the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) has amended some telehealth HIPAA requirements during the COVID-19 national emergency to allow use of some technologies not previously compliant with HIPAA rules. This change is meant to make it easier for providers and patients to have access to needed services. Some of the telehealth communications I may use with you are examples of these newly amended protocols. For more details, please visit <https://www.hhs.gov/hipaa/for-professionals/special-topics/emergency-preparedness/notification-enforcement-discretion-telehealth/index.html>.

Additional Points for Client Understanding:

- I understand that this form is signed in addition to the paperwork you completed as a new patient and does not change any of the Client Consent for Counseling documents I agreed to previously. (A copy of the new patient paperwork is available on the office website for you to review, if needed.)
- I understand that my Initial Consultation will be done using telemental health.
- I understand that telemental health services are completely voluntary and that I can choose not to do it or not to answer questions at any time.
- I understand that none of the telemental health sessions will be recorded or photographed by my therapist without my written permission, and I understand that I may not record or photograph any of my telemental health sessions without the written permission of my therapist.
- I understand that the laws that protect privacy and the confidentiality of client information also apply to telemental health, and that no information obtained in the use of telemental health that identifies me will be disclosed to other entities without my consent.
- I understand that because this is a technologically-based method it may sometimes be necessary for a technician to assist with the equipment. Such technicians will keep any information confidential.
- I understand mental health is performed over as secure a communication system as possible at this time and that it is difficult for anyone else to access these systems. I also understand there is still a possibility of a breach; I accept the rare risk that this could affect confidentiality.
- I understand that there are risks from telemental health that may include but are not limited to the possibility despite all reasonable efforts by my provider: the transmission of medical information could be disrupted or distorted by technical failures; the transmission of my medical information could be interrupted by unauthorized persons; the electronic storage of my medical information could be accessed by unauthorized persons; and/or misunderstandings may occur more easily, particularly when care is delivered in an asynchronous manner.
- I understand that telemental health sessions will not be exactly the same as an in-person session due to the fact that I will not be in the same room as my therapist.
- I understand that I may experience benefits from the use of telemental health in my care, but that no results can be guaranteed or assured.
- I understand I am responsible for creating a safe, confidential space during sessions and I will engage in sessions in a private location where I cannot be heard or seen by others.
- I understand I am responsible for logging out or hanging up once sessions are complete.

3633 Wheeler Rd. Suite 100

AMY D. SIMONS, M.ED., LPC

- I understand you may contact me from a blocked number to avoid others knowing we have connected.
- I understand that if there is an emergency during a telemental health session, then my therapist will call emergency services and my emergency contact. I understand that if I do not follow safety/emergency protocols, my therapist has the right to discontinue use of teletherapy to protect my safety and well-being.
- I understand that if the video conferencing or telephone connection drops while I am in a session, I will provide a phone number (see below) for follow up contact if a plan for technical failures has not already been arranged with my therapist.
- I understand that I am required to provide an emergency contact (see below) in case of an emergency.
- I understand that telemental health-based services may not be appropriate for everyone seeking therapy. I also understand that if my therapist believes I would be better served by another form of therapeutic services (e.g. face-to-face services), she will make every effort under the circumstances of the COVID-19 health crisis to refer me to a practitioner who can provide such services in my area.
- I understand I may be requested to install applications specific to treatment onto my phone, tablet or computer device. Some applications specifically interact via phone /tablet, device, etc. and have the capability to report activity, GPS location, etc.
- I understand I have the right to withhold or withdraw this consent at any time. However, if I do so, this may require my therapist to provide referrals to other treatment providers if face-to-face services are not an option based on geography and/or circumstance.
- I understand the laws that protect the confidentiality of my personal health information also apply to telemental health, as do the limitations to that confidentiality discussed in the Client Consent for Counseling agreement. I also understand that the dissemination of any personally identifiable images or information from the telemental health interaction will not be shared without my written consent.
- I understand that email is not an appropriate means of communicating with my therapist in the case of emergency. I understand the email address provided below is to be used for providing this form only and is not an email that is monitored by my therapist. Any email address used by my therapist to engage in video conferencing is also not meant to be used in the case of an emergency or for counseling related content to be shared. I understand that email is not a secure communication medium for sensitive/personal information. I agree to call the office for scheduling, insurance questions, or supplying other information.

Emergency Contact Name: _____ Emergency Contact Number:

CANCELLATION/NO SHOW POLICY

If you need to cancel an appointment, please follow the same procedure you already agreed to in your original Client Consent for Counseling documents. As a reminder, cancellations should be made within 24 hours of your scheduled session time, unless you have a same day emergency arise. We understand this may be a more common occurrence in current times but please be sensitive to the needs of other patients needing appointments and the impact cancellations have on my practice now more than ever before. Please call and inform our office of any same day emergencies. If cancellation is not made within 24 hours, I reserve the right to charge a $60 fee in the same way a fee is charged for missing or late cancelling in-person sessions.

PAYMENT FOR SERVICES

As with your face to face sessions, we will submit a claim to any insurance provider you gave us written consent to bill in your Consent for Disclosure of Information to Third Party Payors in the new patient paperwork completed at your first visit. Not all mental health services are a covered benefit in all insurance plans. However, it is our understanding at this time that most insurers are covering telemental health services during this emergency period. If you feel unsure, please contact your insurance company. Patients are expected to pay for any part of charges not covered by insurance per usual procedure (i.e., copay, deductibles, etc.). Billing processes remain the same for telemental health services as with in office visits, as outlined in the Client Consent for Counseling document. Self-pay arrangements already in place will remain the same for teletherapy sessions.

It is preferable that payments are made by phone. The front office will call you to obtain your credit card information after your session concludes. It is also possible I may need to help relieve the burden on the front office by collecting your credit card information during our sessions and process the payment later. If an alternative form of payment is needed, please discuss this with me. Please be patient with us as we do our very best to continue offering you counseling services in an ever-changing situation.

CONSENT

I consent to engaging in telemental health as part of my treatment with Amy D. Simons. I understand that “telemental health” includes the practice of health care delivery, diagnosis, consultation, treatment, transfer of personal health information, and education using interactive audio, video, or data communications. I understand the information provided above regarding telemental health.

I hereby give my informed consent for the use of telemental health in my care.

INFORMED CONSENT FOR IN-PERSON SERVICES DURING COVID-19 PUBLIC HEALTH CRISIS

This document contains important information about in-person services in light of the COVID-19 public health crisis. Please read this carefully and let me know if you have any questions. When you sign this document, it will be an official agreement between us.

Decision to Meet Face-to-Face

There may be a need to meet in person for some or all of our sessions. We will need to agree to meet in person. If there is a resurgence of the pandemic or if other health concerns arise, however, I may require that we meet via telehealth. If you have concerns about meeting through telehealth, we will talk about it first and try to address any issues. You understand that, if I believe it is necessary, I may determine that we return to telehealth for everyone's well-being.

If you decide at any time that you would feel safer staying with, or returning to, telehealth services, I will respect that decision, as long as it is feasible and clinically appropriate. Reimbursement for telehealth services, however, is also determined by the insurance companies and applicable law, so that is an issue we may also need to discuss.

Risks of Opting for In-Person Services

You understand that by coming to the office, you are assuming the risk of exposure to the coronavirus (or other public health risk). This risk may increase if you travel by public transportation, cab, or ridesharing service.

Your Responsibility to Minimize Your Exposure

To obtain services in person, you agree to take certain precautions which will help keep everyone (you, me, and our families, [my other staff] and other patients) safer from exposure, sickness and possible death. If you do not adhere to these safeguards, it may result in our starting / returning to a telehealth arrangement. Initial each to indicate that you understand and agree to these actions:

- You will only keep your in-person appointment if you are symptom free.
- You will wear a mask/face covering in our suite until you reach my office. You and I will decide together if masks will be worn during your therapy session.
- The waiting room should be limited to patients being seen for therapy sessions. Minor patients or patients needing physical assistance may bring 1 person with them into the waiting room.
- You will take steps between appointments to minimize your exposure to COVID.
- If you have a job that exposes you to other people who are infected, you will immediately inform me/office staff.
- If a resident of your home tests positive for the infection, you will immediately let me/office staff know and we will then [begin] resume treatment via telehealth.
- I understand that my therapist cannot be held responsible for any exposure risks outside of the therapy office in other parts of the building or the parking lot.
- You will keep a distance of 6 feet and there will be no physical contact (e.g. no shaking hands) with therapists or staff.

3633 Wheeler Rd. Suite 100

AMY D. SIMONS, M.ED., LPC

I may change the above precautions if additional local, state or federal orders or guidelines are published. If that happens, we will talk about any necessary changes.

If You or I Are Sick

You understand that I am committed to keeping you, me, [my staff] and all of our families safe from the spread of this virus. If you show up for an appointment and I [or my office staff] believe that you have a fever or other symptoms, or believe you have been exposed, I will have to require you to leave the office immediately. We can follow up with services by telehealth as appropriate.

If I [or my staff] test positive for the coronavirus, I will notify you so that you can take appropriate precautions.

Your Confidentiality in the Case of Infection

If you have tested positive for the coronavirus, I may be required to notify local health authorities that you have been in the office. If I have to report this, I will only provide the minimum information necessary for their data collection and will not go into any details about the reason(s) for our visits. By signing this form, you are agreeing that I may do so without an additional signed release.

Informed Consent

This agreement supplements the general informed consent/business agreement that we agreed to at the start of our work together.

Your signature below shows that you agree to these terms and conditions.
